

Book No.:PO4-00046

Title:RODZINA MUSZKATOW - PART 1: (THE FAMILY MOSKAT)

Author(s):SINGER, ISAAC BASHEVIS

Narrator(s):BEATA FIDO

A novel about Jewish family life in Warsaw, Poland from the end of the 19th century to the beginning of World War II. The story focuses on the Moskats, a wealthy family and their relatives and friends.

Book No.:PO4-00056

Title:OPOWIADANIA: (SHORT STORIES 1947-1972)

Author(s):MARQUEZ, GABRIEL GARCIA

Narrator(s):ZENON KRUSZE

A collection of short stories about the Caribbean islands and the lives of the people who inhabit them.

Book No.:PO4-00062

Title:CIENIE W RAJU: (SHADOWS IN PARADISE)

Author(s):REMARQUE, ERICH MARIA

Narrator(s):K. GRADZKI

This last novel by the famous German writer presents a group of refugees who have managed to escape Hitler's grasp by emigrating to the United States. The protagonist, a German journalist who became an enemy of the Reich because of his views, is unable to adjust to his new life.

Book No.:PO4-00072

Title:NAWROCENIE: CONVERSION
Author(s):KUSNIEWICZ, ANDRZEJ
Narrator(s):
Fiction.

Book No.:PO4-00078
Title:MARTWA PASIEKA: (DEAD APIARY)
Author(s):IWASZKIEWICZ, JAROSLAW
Narrator(s):ZENON KRUSZE
The author's wife has compiled a selection of her husband's early writing.

Book No.:PO4-00079
Title:ZAGUBIONE W PRZEKLADZIE: (LOST IN TRANSLATION)
Author(s):HOFFMAN, EVA
Narrator(s):BEATA FIDO
Eva Hoffman emigrated to Canada with her family in 1959, successfully adapting to her 'second' culture. But, as this memoir demonstrates, no matter how successful, the immigrant experiences loss as well as gain. Hoffman makes one feel the pain of an abrupt rupture with one's culture and native language and the adjustments to a new idiom.

Book No.:PO4-00092
Title:NIEBO NASZYCH OJCOW: (THE WORLD OF OUR FATHERS)
Author(s):HEN, JOZEF
Narrator(s):BEATA FIDO

An anthology of short stories.